Mr. Howland Wood
The American Numismatic Society
156th Street and Broadway
New York, New York

Dear Mr. Wood:

A man who wants others to get as much use as possible out of the information made available by our Government in Washington, has recently paid for a few four-week enrollments to The United States Daily.

We invite you to accept without charge one of these enrollments. There is no obligation involved, other than that of considering the service carefully during the period of time mentioned. If you then decide to enroll, both he and we will be delighted. If not, you will at any rate have seen, regularly for nearly a month, what has been called "the most needed service in the United States."

If you wish to accept this invitation, please write an "OK" beside your name and address above, and send this letter back to me.

Yours very truly,

David Lawrence
President,
The United States Daily.

David Lawrence, Esq.,
Washington, D.C.

Dear Sir:

As per your letter of February 29th, you may send me copies of the United States Daily for four weeks without obligation to me. Although I feel that it may not be of much value to either myself or this organization, we are willing to give it a try-out, and in case we do really feel the need of it would naturally continue.

Very truly yours,

Curator
